Judge 'Skip' Ebert, (middle in dark suit) is flanked by Living History Reenactors, Gen Richard Ewell, Gen John Gordon, Gen Lewis Armistead and a Colonel after the unveiling of the Civil War Marker in front of the Bicentennial Holly Inn in Mt Holly Springs, PA on Saturday, Aug 8. The event took place as a part of the renovated Holly Inn's 5th anniversary celebration while raising funds for the American Heritage & Education Center in Carlisle.

The group was recruited by the lady in the picture Cori Vaughn, the drummer is Cori's son, Kyle, to her left. They're both from Carlisle, PA. The generals are from leesliutenant.com. General Gordon is portrayed by Don Cole from West VA, Gen Armistead portrayed by Dennis Cole also from WVA, Judge Ebert from Carlisle, (Gen Ewell, covered by the flag) is portrayed by Chris Godart from Manassas, VA and Colonel John Mosby is portrayed by Jimmy Flemming from VA.
